

International Folk Dance and Lore
Artist: Carol Newman

Carol Newman

About the Artist:

Folklorist Carol Newman travels the world as she has for forty years but this time she takes you with her. On this interactive journey the map comes alive as Carol, dressed in traditional clothing from one of many lands, shares: language, music, stories and fabulous folk treasures she has gathered in her travels to: Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Latin America. With her personal museum of: musical instruments, headwear, books in many languages, toys, dolls and more, she highlights creativity as well as similarities and differences among cultures including our own.

Carol graduated from Cornell University with a degree in Human Development and Family Studies. She has studied and taught international culture and folk dance throughout the world as well as at:

Columbia University, City University of New York, Clatsop Community College in Oregon, K-12 public schools, Job Corps and community organizations. She has been a teaching artist in seven regions of Oregon since 1981.

An international folk dance for all culminates this world adventure

Travel the World! – Bring the World to your school for a day!

Audience Size:

One or two presentations for audiences of up to 150 each may be scheduled.

Specific Performances:

Collaborate with Carol to custom design a one-to-three-day multi-cultural celebration. Choose from the following:

- Large-group presentations:
Students can learn about the artifacts Carol has collected on her journeys. Also, View a slide show focused on daily life, folk culture and the environment. Attend a fashion show of authentic traditional clothing modeled by students and teachers.
- Customized individual classes:
Students learn international folk dances from a culture they are studying.
- Culmination celebration:
Students present their dances to the school and community. Add music, food, posters or costumes to create an exciting festival.

Performance Fee:

Price	Regular Presentations
$498	Per day for one or two showing
$210	For additional one plus travel fees
Price	Multi-Cultural Celebration
$498	Per day plus travel fees