

Polynesian Dance & Culture with LeRina Rengal

LeRina Rengal

Grade Level:

K-12

About the Artist:

LeRina was born and raised in Southern California and is of Polynesian decent. She studied Tahitian culture at the renowned Nonosina for 13 years and at the award winning Tekurionui. She has been dancing, teaching and spreading aroha for her culture for many years.

Objectives:

- To gain an appreciation for Polynesian culture through the arts

Activities:

- Movement, dance, storytelling, Polynesian handicrafts, acrobalance and face painting

Workshop Size Limits:

- 40 students

Space Needed:

- Classroom, gymnasium or cafeteria

Connections to the Curriculum:

- Literary art, ethnic studies, music, history, physical education and social studies