

Bringing Books to Life!
Artist: Rick Huddle

Rick Huddle

About the Performance:

Rick Huddle excites kids to read and write by putting on fun, funny, and thought-provoking assemblies. These story-based performances are filled with energy and chock-full of songs and movement that get everyone involved.

Bringing Books to Life:

Promote literacy, enhance vocabulary, and boost self-confidence with this interactive program. Students will listen, sing along and act popular stories from authors like: Shel Silverstein, Robert Munsch, and Carmen Deedy. True personal stories encourage writing and self-expression. Teachers can follow up with artist-provided lesson plans.

Performance Fee:

Price	Regular Presentations
$790	Two assemblies per school
$640 per school	Organized with another school in the same day

- Larger block bookings are also available