GUIDELINES

Just A Few Words

from our President

Aside from the cold and sometimes gray skies, the signs of Spring are appearing! With thoughts of Spring, do you have some spring cleaning you wish to get underway? Or are you downsizing? Perhaps you have found you own more works of art than you can easily display – be it pieces of art you have created or that came from another’s hand. We are hoping to have an Orphan Art Sale some time this spring or early summer, right here at Bush Barn Art Center. The sale would included new or previously admired pieces (paintings, photos, sculptures etc.). The proceeds of the sale will help support the Gallery Guides’ Art Education program.

No date has been determined yet for the Orphan Art Sale, but we need to know if there is an interest and if you might like to be involved in this endeavor. If so, please let me know. We are only fielding interest at this point, no contracts involved.

Looking to summer and the Art Fair, Gallery Guides have purchased two new red tents for the Sno-Cones! The red will bring more attention to us and make us more easily recognizable. Hopefully more attention will mean more sales!

As a last note – our very own Jennifer Gimzewski is directing the new play at the Pentacle Theatre. “The Cake” will be showing February 28th through March 21st . I am going to be there to celebrate Jennifer and to experience what promises to be a thought provoking performance.

Gallery Guides General Meeting Minutes

February 4, 2020

Gretchen Coppedge, President, introduced John Oberdorf who spoke about the origins of his artistic life and vision, as well as his work process and sources of inspiration.

Gretchen Coppedge, President, called the meeting to order and the previous meeting minutes were approved.

There were no financials available for the meeting.

Judi McGavin, Past President, asked for volunteers for setup of the ballroom on the morning of the Clay Ball. Volunteers need to arrive by 9am, and depending on the number of volunteers, setup should take about 2 hours.

Marjorie Young, Vice President, reminded members to sign up for Coffee hour hosting. We still need volunteers for coming months.

Teddi Korevaar, Calendar Chair, reminded members to come prepared with their calendars to sign up for gallery sitting, to return calls from monthly calendar chairs, and if they have time available, to contact the monthly chair to volunteer.

Clarice Jackson, Membership Chair, introduced our newest Gallery Guide member, Elizabeth "Betty" Clark. Betty has been in Salem for eight months after moving from Hawaii to be near her daughter and granddaughter.

The meeting was adjourned by Gretchen Coppedge.

Respectfully submitted by
Kate McWiggins, Recording Secretary

PARKING RESTRICTION REMINDER

Gallery Guides are asked to please not park next to the painted yellow curb areas entering Bush Park! The area next to the work shed near the entrance of the parking lot is of specific concern. City workers need to park their trucks there in order to do their work.

Violators may be ticketed!

Thanks!
