

Know all men by these presents that I have assigned and transferred and by this instrument do assign and transfer all my right title and interest in the Oregon Statesman, the press and materials designed for printing the same, and everything appertaining thereto.

Also all my right and interest in a certain contract and assignment executed by Wilson Blain in favor of Russell and Bush.

And in consideration of the foregoing the said Bush agrees to assume all my liability under said contract.

Oregon City Executed on the nineteenth day of December 1850, at Oregon City.

Henry Russell.

Editor Statesman will please publish this note as the original is in my possession.

Thurston.