

Marysville Nov 4th 1853

Dear Bush

Your favor of the 23d ult met me here today. From the progress I have made so far, I have concluded that moving is a slow business and d--d disagreeable. Getting along well and hope to get through in the early part of next week. I read the article to which you allude also one in the paper of the 1st inst. You are a trump. Whoever says your are only persimons after this, challenge them and I'll do the fighting. I had a letter from Hes the other day. It was just like him manly and straight out, and I felt grateful to him for it. Shall write to him when I get through. Hembree and Shortiss had a letter prepared to send to Lane before I left, intending to have it signed generally by the influential Dems of the County demanding my restoration. I have no reason to be dissatisfied with the feeling exhibited in Yamhill County so far. I see by the last Times that the "Orphan Boy" has been getting himself whitewashed without stint. However I dont think it will stick. "Oil and water wont mix" and it is said upon equally good authority that you cant make a silk purse out of a Sow's ear." What has become of McFadden? Was he qualified? I suppose he has. When you write inquire of the Sec and give me the date of his qualification. Tell me if you can learn what part Judge Olney is taking in the matter of my removal. You know I have a little curiosity to gratify in that way. I want to suggest to you the propriety of having the law changed this winter so as to make the Territorial Printer elected every two years instead of one. It would tend very much to give stability to the discipline of the party. Of course the thing ought to be canvassed and rendered certain before it is undertaken. I spoke to Boise about it he thinks well of it. I want you to see that my copy of the "Anecdotes of Oregon" are sent to me as soon as ready for distribution. I think I shall devote the leisure of this winter to promising them.

Yours in haste Deady

Why the Devil dont you insert that marriage notice of Risdon's? I'll have him bothering me about it next. David C Risdon to Pauline
G Wright Oct 8th 1853

Deady

Manville Nov 4th 1853

Dear Bush

Your favor of the 23<sup>d</sup> ult met me here to day. From the progress I have made so far, I have concluded that moving is a slow business and a-d disagreeable. Letting along will and hope to get through in the early part of next week. I read the article to which you allude also on in the paper of the 12th inst. You are a trump. Whoever says your are only persecuted after this, challenge them and I'll do the fighting. I had a letter from Ned the other day. It was just like <sup>him</sup> manly and straight out, and I felt grateful to him for it. Shall write to him when I get through. Herndon and Shortlip had a letter prepared to send to Lane before I left, intending to have it signed generally by the influential Dem<sup>s</sup> of the County demanding my restoration. I have no reason to <sup>be</sup> dissatisfied with the feeling exhibited in Yamhill County so far. I see by the last Times that the "Orphan Boy" has been getting himself whitewashed without stint. However I don't think it will stick. "Oil and water won't mix" and it is said upon equally good authority that "you can't make a little punk out of a log". What has become of Mr. Fadden? What is he qualified? I suppose he has. When you write inquire of the Sec and give me the date of his qualification. Tell me if you can learn what part Judge Olney is taking in the matter of my removal. You know I have a little curiosity to gratify in that way. I want to suggest to you the propriety of having the law changed this winter so as to make the Territorial Printer elected every two years instead of one. It would tend very much to give stability to the discipline of the party. Of course the thing ought to be canvassed and rendered certain before it is undertaken. I spoke to Boise about it he thinks well of it. I want you to see that my copy of the "Anecdotes of Oregon" are sent to me as soon as ready for distribution. I think I shall devote the leisure of this winter to perusing them.

Yours in haste Deady

Why the Devil dont you insert that marriage notice of ~~Pauline~~ Rusdons? I'll have him bothering me about it next. David C Rusdon to Pauline C Wright. Oct 8th 1853
Deacy