

Oregon City, Dec. 3rd, 1853

My Dear Sir,

At the earliest moment you can I want you to inform me if you learn anything about the Treasury Warrant in favor of Jos. Hess for $145. you forwarded me by mail from Salem. Please write me on receipt of this, if you have got any trace of it. Ask Tiny if Wood has yet sent over a copy of the letters of Administration of Gilliam's estate, as it was agreed should be. Did you get copy of the 'Extract'?

Nothing new. In haste.

Your Friend,

Pratt

Oregon City, Dec. 3rd 1853.

My Dear Sir,

At the earliest moment you can spare you to inform me if you learn anything about the Treasury Warrant in favor of Dr. Ship for $145. You forwarded me by mail from Salem - Please write me on receipt of this, if you have got any trace of it - Ask Amy if Wood has yet sent over a copy of the letters of Administration of Williams' estate, as it was agreed should be. Did you ^{get} copy of the estate?

Nothing new - In haste -

Your Friend,

Beelo