

Oregon City, O.T.
Feb'y 14th 1854

Hon. T. G. Washington,

My Dear Sir:

Allow me to introduce to you Asahael Bush Esq of this Territory who visits Washington this winter both as a looker on and on business. Mr. B. has long been known to you. His connection with the leading Democratic Prep of Oregon for several years as its Editor and owner and the efficient aid his pen, his abilities, and his prudent practical judgment have lent to the Democratic cause in this Territory, have not, I am sure, escaped your observation. In addition to this, he is a personal friend of mine, and as such I commend him to your especial good will and kindly attentions. He is entirely worthy of your confidence and esteem. I am well, and remain with much regard.

Faithfully yours,

O. C. Pratt

Oregon City O. T.

Feb'y 14th 1854.

Hon. P. H. Washington,

My Dear Sir:

Allow me to introduce to you Asahel Bush Secy of this Territory who visits Washington this winter both as a looker on and on business. Mr B, has long been known to you. His connection with the leading Democratic Press of Oregon for several years as its Editor and owner and the efficient aid his pen, his abilities, and his prudent practical judgment have lent to the Democratic cause in this Territory, have not, I am sure, escaped your observation. In addition to this, he is a personal friend of mine, and as such I commend him to your especial good will and kindly attentions. He is entirely worthy of your confidence and esteem. I am well, and remain with much regard,

Faithfully Yours,

A. C. B. Allen