

At Home Sept 30th 1854

Dear Bush

I got home last night after a fifty mile ride yesterday. I wrote you from Corvallis enclosing an accepted draft upon Avery for $64. I deposited the funds with him and it will be paid whenever presented. I dont think I told you to change the destination of Robert Hendersons paper from Salt Creek or South Yamhill to Lafayette. Will you do it?

In looking over a lot of letters that came to hand during my absence I was amused with the following paragraph. The writer is an old friend of yours, and I insert it upon the principle of giving you an opportunity "to see ourselves as others see us." Dont retaliate by telling me what some scallawag said about myself as that will not help the matter. Here it is. "By the way what has Old Joe done for Bush that he is giving him such foolish puffs. There is something in the wind. Bush has rendered himself rather ridiculous by the way he has been writing to his paper as to Lane. Everybody knows that Lane is no favorite of Bushs, the result is every one is saying whats up?" After that will you be honest enough to take in that pleasant fiction at the head of your paper. "No favor sways us &c"?

As you have doubtless learned before this, Pratt is going to run for delegate. Assumes that Lane will withdraw in his favor and then he will be nominated by default. Is he not laboring under a misapprehension? It is a great pity we had'nt a half a score of delegates to elect and then all the public martyrs could vindicate themselves, and everybody could canvass for the Presidency.

The Mingo Chief affair I have heard nothing of lately. I guess it will all end in smoke. Palmer has suspended Saml Culver upon charges of speculating off the Indians. It is an unfortunate matter on many accounts. I suggested to him that he should have notified Culver first, but he thought that would only beget useless delay.

I shall start for Coos next Sunday. Read the Editorial in the Umpqua Gazette of Tuesday in relation to the P M Genl.

At Home Sept 20th 1852
Dear Bush,
I got home last night after a fifty mile ride yesterday. I wrote you from Corvallis enclosing an accepted draft upon Avery for $64. I deposited the funds with him and it will be paid whenever presented. I don't think I told you to change the destination of Robert Kerndons paper from Salt Creek or South Yamhill to Spafayette. Will you do it?

In looking over a lot of letters that came to hand during my absence I was amused with the following paragraph. The writer is an old friend of yours, and I insert it upon the principle of giving you an opportunity "to see ourselves as others see us." Don't retaliate by telling me what some Scalloway said about myself as that will not help the matter. No one it is. "By the way what has Old Joe done for Bush that he is giving him such foolish puffs. There is something in the wind. Bush has rendered himself rather ridiculous by the way he has been writing to his paper as to Sam. Everybody knows that Seane is no favorite of Bush, the result is every one is saying "what's up?"

After that will you be honest enough to take in that pleasant fiction at the head of your paper, "No favor sway us yet"!

As you have doubtless learned before this, Pratt is going to run for delegate. It seems that Seane will withdraw in his favor and then he will be nominated by default. Is he not laboring under a misapprehension?
It is a great pity we had not a half a score of delegates to elect and then all the public martyns could vindicate themselves, and everybody could canvass for the Presidency.

The Mingo Chief affair I have heard nothing of lately. I guess it will all end in smoke. Palmer has suspended Sam'l Leaver upon charges of speculation off the Indians. It is an unfortunate matter on many accounts. I suggested to him that he should have notified Leaver first, but he thought ^{that} "would" ^{only} be a useless delay.

I shall start for Coos next Sunday.
