Friend Bush

Enclosed you will find "a few lines" handed me by our old friend Repper he desires to have them published. I have read the "Noadi" and there is nothing in it that can "call up the Blush to the most fastidious Cheek" There is no news here that is worth writing, whenever there is I'll frop you a line.

Yours in haste

W.H. Barnhart

P.S. If the "Noadi" is not published, Mr Repper wishes it returned.
