

Deer Creek Jan. 14, 1857

Friend Bush,

Enclosed you will please find a manuscript of a Ball Ticket. You will please print 150 of the same on nice note paper in as neat a form as you can varying from my copy if you think proper except in the names, and send them to my address by mail or safe hands by the first opportunity, enclosing your Bill for the same, which you will make as moderate as possible on account of the Good Cause. You will also accept a ticket for yourself and other friends in Salem. We should be much pleased to see you present.

Accept the regards of a "stranger friend"

James M. Pyle

N. B. Chadwick says if you are not willing to trust me, that he has some accounts of yours which when he collects he will apply on the above (?)

Deer Creek Jan 14 1854

Friend Bush,

Enclosed you will please find a manuscript of a Ball Ticket. You will please print 150 of the same on nice note paper in as neat a form as you can varying from my copy if you think proper except in the names, and send them to my address by mail or safe hands by the first opportunity, enclosing your Bill for the same, which you will make as moderate as possible on account of the Good Cause. You will also accept a ticket for yourself and other friends in Salem We should be much pleased to see you present

Accept the regards of a "stranger friend"

James M. Pyle

A B Chadwick says if you are not willing to trust me that he has some accounts of yours, which when he collects he will apply on the above. (P.)

Democratic Ticket.

DELEGATE TO CONGRESS,
JOSEPH LANE.

Delegates to Constitutional Convention,

(Jesse Day,
T. B. Sanderson,)
Thomas Whitted,
S. Fitzhugh.

For Representative,

A. A. Matthews.

For County Commissioner,

J. M. Arrington.

For Assessor,

Langworthy.

For Treasurer,

S. Hamilton.

For Sup't of Common Schools,

See James Pyle
et al

In place of Dredy & Chadwick