

Albany, March 25th 1857

Dear Bush:--

This is Wednesday. I happen to be in Albany. I have seen Gen. Lamerick, besides I have heard from Corvallis, from Portland and from Clatsop. Of course Lane is to be nominated. Amen, and amen! We will re-nominate Lane, kill Kelley and rebuke, disconcert, overwhelm and bury our enemies. I allude--as you will readily understand-- to Galand, Avery, &c.

Those Clatsop county dogs you give--I see today-- particular h---l. This is as it should be. All will end well.

God bless you--

Truly, &c

A. Bush, Esq.

Delezon Smith

P. S. I saw Lamerick today on his upward passage. I am told that our friends in Benton are all O. K.

Yours, &c

D.S.

Deborah Smith

Albany, March 25th 1867.

See Bush! - This is Wednesday. I happen to be in Albany. I have seen Gen. Samerick, besides I have heard from Corwells, from Portland and from Clatsop. Of course
Lane is to be nominated, Ames, and Ames!
We will re-nominate Lane, kill Kelley and rebuke, disconcert, or overwhelm and bury our enemies, I allude - as you will readily understand - to Colver, Greig, et c.

These Clatsop County docs you give - I see to-day - particular h - l. This is as it should be. All will end well.

God bless you -
Truly, &c.

A. Bush, Esq., Albany, N.Y.

P.S. I had Samerick to-day on his upward passage. I am told that our friends in Benton are all O.K.

Yours, &c.
D.S.