

Deer Creek

April 2 1857

A. Bush, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

Permit me to introduce you your acquaintance Mr. James M. Pyle of Deer Creek, who visits Salem as a delegate to the Convention which is about to assemble in your City. He is a democrat of good standing, and a young man generally esteemed wherever he is known. Any attention which you may shew him will be kindly reciprocated by

Yours truly

S.F. Chadwick

Deer Creek
April 2 1857.

A. Bush, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

Permit me to introduce to your acquaintance Mr. James M. Pyle of Deer Creek, who visits Salem as a delegate to the Convention which is about to assemble here in your City. He is a democrat of good standing, and a young man generally esteemed wherever he is known. Any attention which you may show him will be kindly reciprocated by

Yours truly,
S. J. Chavison.