

At Home, April 2d, 1857.

Friend Dush,

Be pleased to publish the enclosed advertisement. I have the pay for it and will hand it to you when next I see you.

A word as to politics. We shall have a desperate fight in old Glackmas. It will be mainly upon yourself. We think we can win, and go into the contest with that determination. We are gathering strength with every day in the country. In a word we hope to redeem the county.

Yours always sincerely,

Geo. L. Curry.
