Dear Bush,

As yet it is impossible for me to determine whether the newspaper enterprise will be put through or not. But I will not ask you to go to any extra expense, or wait any longer with me in relation to your very liberal offer with the Press & materials. It would be so long before the paper could be started with the Statesman Press that I cannot say now I will take it. If therefore you see any chance to sell, do'nt wait on me. If we could get the paper under headway by March I'd take you up right off and pay you the scrip. The time is all important.

The young Printer of whom I wrote you is broke flat & was therefore afraid to go over for fear you would have already employed a hand. He has gone to work on a claim. Success attend you.
