

At Home, Jan. 2d, 1800.

Asahel Dush, Esq.
Salon

Friend Dush,

Be pleased to direct Mrs. F. A. Drovins's Statesman to 107 S. Third St. Philadelphia. You simply address it now, or have hitherto done so, to Philadelphia. Make this addition and oblige me.

My friend and neighbor Blacker takes you up a box of splendid apples. As I do not subscribe to the "Delasonian" and never see it, should he undertake to "whack" at your humble servant, I will thank you to send me the "exchange no." in which anything of the kind would appear, that is after you have got through with it yourselves. The compliments of the season to yourself, Biggs & families.

Yours, always Sincerely,

Geo. L. Curry.
