Dear Bush

I enclose an advertisement found in your d-- blaguard sheet,- who pays for it I am unable to say but it is certain that Ladd Reid & Co are not willing to pay for advertising goods they have not for sale say Iath--- Now I think this thing has been played out,- you have got a fighting man, why not employ some one to attend to the business Department, and not be continually making these mistakes- Reed thinks you done this intentionally because we (LR-) paid in advance- Is it so?

Mike is hard at work and will post the Major up, who I presume will give you all the items about town-

Yours Respectfully

Dear Sir

I enclose an advertisement form, in your D. Blaquart sheet, who pay for it I am unable to say, but it is certain that Ladd & Co are not willing to pay for adver-tising goods they have not for sale.
- say Lathrop Now I think this thing has been played out, you have got a fighting man, why not employ some one to attend to the Business Department, and not be continually making these mistakes - Rus thinks you done this intentionally because you paid in advance - & it is! - Mike is hard at work and will push the Major up, who I presume will give you all the items about town -

Yours Respectfully
