

Pleasant Hill, Ogn
23 February 1860

Messrs Editors,

Jno. Russell and J. H. Huffer, want the Statesman they say they will pay in the year.

They are both good men.

Brock wants to be nominated for Congress, but the "Old Santy" running for the Senate will not allow it.

I saw Dan Stewart last week. He says that it is expected of the "Family" to nominate Col. Shiel of Salem. He (Dan S.) has crawled up Lane's fundament and he says that not over twenty men in Douglass Co. are for Delazon.

He also tells me in confidence that Brock, tells him, that Lane Co. will not support Delazon anyway if the "Junta" (in Eugene) can prevent it.

Doubtless you have all the particulars by this time, of the difficulty, our boys got into, in town about the jail breaking &c. I hear that our mutual friend Jo Teal has exchewed politics and "retired to the shackles of private life" on the strength of the same.

Respectfully &c In haste

W. W. Bristow

Editors Statesman

Salem

Ogn

Pleasantville, Ore
23 February 1860

My dear Editors,

Mr. Russell and
J. H. Kuffer, want the Statesman they say they will pay in the year.
They are both good men.

Brooks wants to be nominated for Congress, but the "Old South" running for the Senate will not allow it.

I saw Dan Stewart last week.
He says that it is expected of the "Family" to nominate Col.
Whit of Salem. He (Dan S.) has crawled up Leavis' fundament and he says that not over twenty men in Douglas Co. are for Delaney.

He also tells me in confidence that Brooks, tells him, that Leavis Co. will not support Delaney any anyway if the "family" (in Oregon) and prevent it.

Doubtless you have all the particulars by this time, of the difficulty our boys got into, in town about the jail breaking &c. I have that our mutual friend Jo Seal has exchanged politics and "retired" to the "shacks of private life" on the strength of the same.

Respectfully
Yours
J. W. Brewster

Editors Statesman
Salem
Ore