

Pleasant Hill, Ogn
26th Feb. 1860

Messrs Editors,

I sent you a letter yesterday by private hands, hoping it would reach you by private hands, hoping it would reach you by return mail, but as you may not get it all, I take this opportunity of telling you that it was a request, that you forward the Statesman to Mr. Charles McClure, at Eugene City. He says, he will pay, in the year. He is good.

In haste, respectfully your

Obedient Servant

My dear Editors,

I sent you a letter yesterday by private hands, hoping it would reach you by return mail. But as you may not get it, all, I take this opportunity of telling you that it was a request, that you forward the Statute to Mr. Charles McClure, at Eugene City. He says, he will pay, in the year. He is good.

In haste, respectfully, your Obedient Servant.
