Dear Beggs

Before the supper bell rings, I have just time to acknowledge the receipt of your last and to thank you for it.

In regard to going into the first Convention and carrying it for Grover, I believe there is a good show if we can get the people into the Convention. I am for it if possible. Our Independent ticket has made it difficult to go with any Convention this year.

I have been out to my claim and contracted for a small 11 x 13 house. I will enter the claim though I wish I had never seen the dam real estate.

Beggs I think something of getting married in the spring, so you will not expect me to think of much else.

After supper I shall be engaged for the evening.

Mallery is teaching his last school. I am glad of it. The school is something of a bore.

Times here, are yet very dull. Now a little item of business which I should have mentioned in my letter to Bush. John Cannon has paid me his account up to No 52 so you will enter the credit and stop his paper. I dont think he can read any way.

Remembrances to Mrs. Beggs

Truly
Yours
