Dear Sir

In reply to you about the time I would be ready to pay the note, I will say this. It would suit me best to pay a part of the note, say all but ($1000.00) One thousand dollars, after harvest, say about the first of October, and give you my note for the $1000, one year after date, paying you interest, as heretofore. If this will suit you, It will accommodate me, very much, as I said before money is very hard to collect, I have a large amount outstanding, but can't collect. -- In reply to your invitation, to come down and take a ride over to Nesmiths, I must say I would be pleased to do so, if I could get away from home, long enough, but I am kept busy all the time looking after my little business affairs, I havent been away from home since last October, remember me to Nes. and all old true friends, please write me by Simmons.

Yours Truly
