

Jacksonville Agst 28

A Dush Esqr

Enclosed you Will find Slip of Paper that I cut out of the Sacramento Weekly Union, in reference to "Ancient" Joseph Lane --

Old T Vault, told me a few days since, that he had Sold Half of "the Sentinel" But I see no notice of it in the last number. the Statesman of the 16th made him verry indignant at you He said "he would hereafter treat your attacks with His contempt." I was surprised to find the old fellow so much in debt. his share of "The Dardenelles" is now Mortgaged for all it is worth he is runing quite low in Jacksonville. He is Drunk half of his time and says that himself & Smith will be the next two United States Senators, and old Lane, the next President ----

Thos Pyle has gone to Winchester to get Paid (in an appointment, from Lane,) for Blowing for him & Mosher, he is continuously obusing you for "going against old Jo". But as Pyle is well-known to be a man of but little Principle in any Thing, & less in Politics, he makes But a small change in mens minds, at this Place, last year he offerd to run for the Councle, or State Senator, on the National ticket, against Berry --

"Genl" Lamrick, the Napolion of the Oregon War, has been, and is yet, busely engaged in getting subscribers for Smiths paper, telling the People that it Will be the Leading Democratic Paper of Oregon in one year --

I am Respectfully,

E. S. Kearney

Jacksonville Sept 28,

A. Bush Esqr

Enclosed you will find ~~the~~ slip of paper that I cut out of the Sacram ento Weekly Union, in reference to "Ancient" Joseph Lane -

Old T. Boutt, told me a few days since, that he had sold half of "the Sentinel" But I see no notice of it in the last number. The States man of the 16th, made him very indignant at you indeed He said "he would here - after treat your attacks with his contempt". I was ~~surprised~~ Surprised to find the old fellow so much in debt. his share of "The Lardemelles" ~~was~~ is now mortgaged for all it is worth he is running quite low in Jacksonville He is drunk half of his time and say that himself & ~~sel~~ Smith will be the next two United States Senators, and old Lane, the next President. -

That Pyle has gone to Winchester to get Bail (in an appointment, from Lane) for blowing for him & Mosher, he is continually abusing you for "going against old Do". But as Pyle is well known to be a man of but little principle ~~any~~ in any thing, & less in politics, he matters But a small change in ~~most~~ mens minds, at this place last year he offered to run for the Council, or State Senator, on the National ticket, against Benj -
"Gin" Leammick. The population of the Oregon War, has been, and is yet, busily engaged in getting subscribers for Smiths paper, telling the people that it will be the leading Democratic Paper of Oregon in one year - I am Respectfully, V. C. Kearny