

Portland,
Saturday, Dec. 29th, 1860.

Friend Bush,

I received the voucher to support the printing bill against the Cayuse service, which you forwarded. I have not yet sent it on, supposing that as you intended going East so soon that perhaps you would prefer to take it with you, at all events I judged that would be the best.

You see that I have joined the old profession again, and am hammering away. I hope to see you soon in town.

Yours as ever,

Geo. L. Curry.

P.S. Have the goodness to tell Harvey Gerdon that may be he had better discontinue the Statesman to my address at Butteville, as all the family are down here with me.

Yours &c

Friend Ruth,

I received the voucher to support the printing bill against the Census Service, which you forwarded. I have not yet sent it on, supposing that as you ~~was~~ tended your ^{East} son that perhaps you would prefer to take it with you, at all events I judged that would be the best.

You see that I have joined the old profession again,
and am hammering away.
I hope to see you soon in town, (over) just as ever, Geo. S. Curry,

P.S. Have the good news to tell Harvey Gordon that he must, may be he had better discontinue the Statesman to my address at Butterville, as all the family are down here with me.

Yours &c. Geo. S. Curry
