

Portland Nov 29th '62

Dear Bush

Yours of the 28th inst received. It appears from your statement of the case that it would be impracticable to send the proof of the Code to me, at Portland. As you say "typographical errors" are more likely to escape my attention than yours. I have noticed errors in the print of the laws of the Statesman, particularly in I think the 1st section of the act relating to Letting Roads; but the Senate got that act engrossed by Saml Clark or the first part of it, and his writing is not very easy to decipher. I suppose you might as well go on. I will try and get up there some of the time. At present I am expecting to go up east either to the Dalles or Walla Walla, to examine some charges against two men that are now in custody at W.W. for selling liquor to Indians. I will probably know certainly when I get a letter from Genl Alvord, which will be in a day or two. Say nothing about this at present, if I go up I will give you an account of it, if anything transpires of importance.

Did you get the letter I sent you by Brown with Nesmiths communication to the W.W. Statesman. Give me your opinion about it.

I have an impression that in the last chap of the code the one relating to Probate matters, there is a word written wrong, that it is a verb, and the mistake consists in using the wrong tense, I intended to correct it but forgot it. If your attention is called to it you had better correct it, or put the proper word in brackets. The first part of the code is much the most difficult to decipher, on account the interlineations of the printed copy that I used.

Have you seen the enclosed "Judge & General"

Yours Deady

Bro Pearne has commenced the publication of his thanksgiving sermon, by instalments in the P.C. Advocate (Blatherate) I am glad to see that he has come over to the good old Tory doctrine "that, "the powers that be are ordained of God", but am pained to remember that when "the powers that be", were not of his ilk, he conducted himself towards them as if they were ordained of Satan.

However that is they way of the world.

Deady

Portland Nov 29th/62
Dear Bush,
Yours of the 26th just received. It appears from your statement of the case that it would be impracticable to send the proof of the book to me, at Portland. As you say "typographical errors" are more likely to escape my attention than yours. I have noticed errors in the print of the laws of the Statesman, particularly in I think the 1st section of the act relating to Setting Roads: but the Senate got that act engrossed by Saml Clark or the first part of it, and his writing is not very easy to decipher. I suppose you might as well go on. I am triana got up there some of the time. At present I am expecting to go up east either to the Dallas or ^{Malla} Malla, to examine some charges against two men that are now in custody at N. W. for selling liquor to Indians. I will probably know certainly when I get a letter from Genl Alvord, which will be in a day or two. Say nothing about this at present, if I go up I will give you an account of it, if anything transpires of importance.

Did you get the letter I sent you by Brown with Smith's communication to the N. W. Statesman. Give me your opinion about it.

I have an impression that in the last chap of the code

the one relating to Probate matters, there is a word written wrong, that it is a verb, and the mistake consists in using the wrong tense, I intended to correct it but forgot it. If your attention is called but you had better correct it, or put the proper word in brackets.

The first part of the code is much the most difficult to decipher, on account the interlineations of the printed copy that I used.

Have you seen the enclosed "Judge & General" yours.

Deady

Bro Praine has commenced the publication of his Thanksgiving sermon, by instalments in the P. O. Advocate (Blatherati)

I am glad to see that he has come over to the good old Tory doctrine that, "the powers that be are ordained of God", but am pained to remember that when "the powers that be", were not of his ilk, he conducted himself towards them as if they were ordained of Satan.

However that is the way of the world,

Deady