

Needle In A Gay Stack – Queer Love

Needle In A Gay Stack is the collaborative project of artists Molly Alloy and Michael Espinoza. Together, they create “duets and pairings” that utilize the language of individual pieces to communicate in collaborative and complimentary works. Themes, alignments and contrasts imbue their pieces with a communal language that enhances their distinct, yet self-reflective gatherings—come see the inaugural pieces as a collective in this exhibition!